

Another Podium for Mancini

Author: Manuel Date: 26 May 2013

Bronze for the athlete Massimo Mancini, an important medal for the young cadet after the flop of Genoa. He conducted a safe fight, but in the semifinals he exaggerated and carelessly took the leg of the opponent with the hand getting disqualified. In the small final for the third place he led the fight and won by ippon. The next meeting is in Poland, where Massimo will defend the Italian flag in a competition of the European circuit.
