

Giacomo Fiorucci reaches the coveted goal of the black belt

Author: Manuel Date: 07 March 2014

The young athlete Giacomo Fiorucci reached the coveted goal of the black belt at the internationals of Vittoria Veneto, achieving the last forty points to get the first dan. 1995, junior, 66 kg, Giacomo fought on the tatami with tenacity and perseverance to gain the necessary points for the passage to a higher grade belt, even in spite of numerous injuries. The Olympian Marino Cattedra delivered him the black belt during a regional training held Tuesday, March 4 in Spello.